To all new students:

Academic Integrity and Student Plagiarism

The University is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity as articulated in the educational aims and institutional learning outcomes for its curricula. All newly-enrolled students are expected to read the University booklet ‘What is plagiarism?’ (http://www.rss.hku.hk/plagiarism/page2s.htm).

2. This University regards plagiarism as a serious offence. The commission of plagiarism is a violation of the Regulations Governing Students’ Academic Conduct Concerning Assessment. Any student who has committed plagiarism is liable to disciplinary action.

June 2018