- Applications without sufficient supporting documents WILL NOT be considered.
- All application forms and supporting documents once submitted will not be returned, and will be destroyed after the admission period.

Composition Fees
The composition fee for the academic year 2020-2021 was HK$164,000 per annum for full-time student and HK$82,000 per annum for part-time student. The fees for 2021-2022 is subject to review for the University’s approval.

Student Visa
Students who do not have the right of abode or right to land in Hong Kong are required to apply for a student visa for the purpose of education from the Hong Kong Immigration Department (ImmD). HKU’s Admissions and Academic Liaison Section (AAL) will act as the local sponsor and provide assistance to students for student visa application.

It is the responsibility of individual students to make appropriate visa arrangement before the start of their studies.

Concurrent Studies
University’s General Regulation G6 prohibits concurrent registration by a student of this University for another post-secondary qualification either at this University or at any other institution, unless approval of the Senate has been given in advance. A breach of this regulation may result in discontinuation of studies at this University.

Application Result
Applicants who do not hear from the Faculty of Law Office by July 31, 2021 may assume their applications unsuccessful.
