1. The MFA in Creative Writing in English at HKU is a unique full-time programme at the HKU Black Box. The first of its kind in Hong Kong and Asia, the MFA at HKU features the contemporary creative voice in multilingual contexts. Intense study of design, across the arts, includes compelling historical foundations and fluidity of craft. A customised combination of coursework, workshops, studios, and individual advising offers each student opportunities in the artistic environment of the Black Box to explore creative writing, design practices, and the wider vision of a writer’s “built environment” on global audiences. At the same time, in Workshops throughout the year, each writer joins in a community of shared fellowship and passion for creative writing. The Creative Thesis, an original work revised for submission and potential publication at the end of the MFA, marks the beginning of each writer's lifelong practices and mastery in the journey of creative writing.
