

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
FACULTY OF ARTS

Master of Buddhist Studies Programme (2019/2020)

(Please also visit the University Taught Postgraduate Admissions website at <http://www.hku.hk/tpg> before submitting your application.)

1. Applications are invited for admission in September 2019 to read for the degree of Master of Buddhist Studies. The application deadlines for the first round and the second round are 12:00nn (HKT), January 22, 2019 and 12:00nn (HKT), March 15, 2019 respectively.
2. The Master of Buddhist Studies programme offers quality teachings on the fundamental understanding and in-depth analysis of Buddhism from the textual, doctrinal and historical perspectives. It further aims to provide training in the practical usage of the Buddhist teachings in modern societies, and offers a critical review of Buddhism in Hong Kong, Mainland China and the region. Topics include history and doctrines of the different Buddhist traditions, contemporary Buddhism, and Buddhism as applied in counselling, palliative care and psychotherapy, with particular reference to current scholarly research. The programme also serves as an excellent basis for candidates planning to obtain research degrees in the field.

The curriculum shall normally extend over one academic year of full-time study or two academic years of part-time study (including evening and weekend sessions). Scholarships are available for application. Detailed information on the curriculum and scholarships are available from the website of the Centre of Buddhist Studies at <http://www.buddhism.hku.hk/>.

Regulations and Syllabuses

9. The regulations and syllabuses for the programme can also be viewed at <https://aal.hku.hk/tpg/programme-list-1920>.

Concurrent Studies

10. General Regulation G6(b)(i) prohibits concurrent registration by a student of this University for any other post-secondary qualification either at this University or at any educational institution, unless approval of the Senate has been obtained in advance. Students in breach of this regulation may be required to discontinue their studies at this University.

Visa for Studies

11. If you are not a holder of a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card, a dependant visa, a work visa or an IANG (Immigration Arrangements for Non-local Graduates) visa, you must obtain a student visa before registration in our programmes. Normally the student visa is only granted to those admitted for full-time studies. Students are responsible for ensuring that they have a valid visa and register in the programmes before the study begins. If any student fails to register in time, the offer of admission may be withdrawn and all fees already paid will not be refunded.
