

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
FACULTY OF DENTISTRY

Master of Science in Community Dentistry

Applications are invited for admission in September 2019 to read for the degree of Master of Science in Community Dentistry (one-year full-time or two-year part-time). To be eligible for admission to the curriculum, a candidate shall:

- (a) comply with the General Regulations and the Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Curricula;
- (b) hold the degree of Bachelor of Dental Surgery from this University, or a degree or other qualification of equivalent standard from another university or comparable institution accepted for this purpose;
- (c) for a candidate who is seeking admission on the basis of a qualification from a university or comparable institution outside Hong Kong of which the language of teaching and/or examination is not English, shall satisfy the University English language requirement applicable to higher degrees as prescribed under General Regulation G2(b); and
- (d) satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination if required.

Applications for a taught postgraduate programme can be submitted via our on-line application system at <http://www.hku.hk/tpg/>.

The closing date for applications is 12:00 noon (HKT), June 28, 2019. [Note: Late applications may still be considered at the discretion of the Postgraduate Programme Director.]

Enquiries about the application results can be addressed to the Faculty of Dentistry Office at dental@hku.hk after July 31, 2019.

Tuition Fee Structure: Please refer to the Faculty Website at <http://facdent.hku.hk/learning/taught-postgraduate-programmes.html> for information pertaining to fee levels for 2018-19. The fee structures for 2019-20 will be subject to the University's approval. Students will be required to purchase some clinical kits for their clinical training details of which will be provided upon offer of admission.

Apart from offering a small number of self-financing places in each cohort to study the MSc(CommunityDent) curriculum, a number of government-funded places might become available in 2019-20. Confirmation on this is being awaited. Candidates who are interested in studying the MSc in Community Dentistry are advised to apply for admissions to the curriculum as soon as possible. Candidates who fulfil the eligibility criteria (yet to be announced) for the government-funded places may be offered the opportunity to take up such quotas.

Government grants and loans are available for application from eligible local full-time postgraduate students. Enquiries should be made to the Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS), Room 303, Meng Wah Complex of the University (email address: cedars@hku.hk); or to the Student Finance Office, Working Family and Student Financial Assistance Agency, 11/F Cheung Sha Wan Government Offices, 303 Cheung Sha Wan Road, Kowloon (email address: wg_sfo@wfsfaa.gov.hk; telephone no.: 2152 9000).

The Faculty of Dentistry provides a number of scholarships to newly-admitted self-financing students based on outstanding academic merit. Would interested students please indicate your intention to apply for a scholarship on the application form.

April 2019