THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Master of Arts in Art History Programme

Notes on Submission of Supporting Documents

Please email the following supporting documents to the department (maah@hku.hk) for our preliminary consideration before the application deadline. Your application number should be marked on each document. Transcripts, diplomas, certificates and other submitted documents which are not in English should be accompanied by an officially certified translation in English. Certified translation may be provided by your home institution.

Please note that you are not required to submit original/certified true copy of your documents to the University during the application stage. Should you be given an admission offer by the University, you will receive notification to submit certified true copies of your documents.

Attach the following documents in support of your application:

- For all undergraduate and postgraduate qualifications attained from HKU, applicants should attach a copy of the official final transcript including a complete record of courses attended, examination results, overall result, and date of award.
- For all undergraduate and postgraduate qualifications attained from institutions other than HKU, applicants should attach copies of each graduation certificate and official final transcript including a complete record of courses attended, grades, overall result, and date of award.
- For all current studies which have yet to be completed, applicants should attach a copy of their most up-to-date official transcript.
- TOEFL / IELTS official score report for applicants from universities or comparable institutions outside Hong Kong of which the language of teaching and/or examination is not English. Applicants who took the TOEFL should request the Educational Testing Service (ETS) to send an official score report directly to: Department of Art History, 1033 Run Run Shaw Tower, The University of Hong Kong, Pokfulam, Hong Kong (University’s TOEFL code: 9671).
- Ask two academic referees to email their academic referee’s reports and letters directly to the Department of Art History (maah@hku.hk) before the application deadline.
- A statement of purpose indicating your interest in this programme and your career goals (maximum 1000 words).
- A current c.v. or résumé.
- An academic or professional writing sample in English.
- If applying for financial aid, a scholarship application form.
- If applying for financial aid, copies of relevant tax forms and bank statements.

Notes

1. All documents once submitted will NOT be returned. They will be destroyed if the application is...
unsuccessful.

2. For qualifications obtained in China, (i) officially certified true copies of Certificate of Bachelor’s Degree (學士學位證書) and Graduation Diploma (畢業證書), and (ii) an official transcript in Chinese accompanied by certified translation in English by the issuing institution are required. Verification Report of Graduation Certificate and Transcript issued by CHSI (学信网) & CHESICC (全国高等学校学生信息咨询与就业指导中心) and Verification Report of the Bachelor Degree Certificate issued by CDGDC (学位与研究生教育发展中心) are also acceptable.

3. Certified true copy of academic document can be arranged by (i) a notary public (e.g. a Commissioner for Oaths at a District Office in Hong Kong); or (ii) your home institution if you are an overseas applicant.

Explanatory notes:
6. Successful applicants normally can only receive partial tuition reduction; what resources do you have available to fund the remaining costs of the MA programme?

7. Please state any other information which you consider relevant to this application (including financial difficulties you have encountered, if any):

Supporting Documents

Please attach the following documents:

1. A recent rental receipt, mortgage payment, or other indication of housing costs
2. Your three most recent annual tax statements
3. All your bank statements from January and July of the past three years (i.e. 6 statements per bank account)

Personal Information Collection Statement

1. This is a personal data collection statement made under the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (“the Ordinance”).

2. Personal data provided by you to The University of Hong Kong (“the University”) through the completion of award application and, if awarded, through the award procedures and during studies at the University will be used for the University to perform its administrative, education, academic and research functions, and for the directly related purposes.

3. Unless otherwise specified, provision of personal data is voluntary. However, failure to provide the relevant personal data will render the University unable to perform the relevant functions, e.g. unable to consider your award application.

4. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the purposes and use of the personal data collected are elaborated as follows

5. As regards your award application, the personal data collected will be used for the purposes prescribed in the application forms/documents and will serve the following purposes:

   a. as basis for award selection, and communication on award-related matters;
   b. as evidence for verification of your identity, your qualifications and academic records in relevant institutions and organizations in Hong Kong or other places, and other information provided in the application forms/documents; and
   c. identifying possible multiple applications and records of your previous and existing studies at the University and other institutions.
6. In case of application for an award funded by donation and/or administered by an external party, your personal data provided to the University may be transferred to the donor, donor representative and/or external administering party concerned for the purposes as stated in paragraph 5 above.

7. If your award application is successful, your personal data provided during the application process may be transferred to the student record system of the University, to become part of your official student records.

8. Personal data of the students of the University will be used for all purposes relating to studies at, activities conducted by, and facilities, services and benefits provided by the University (in particular those governed by the relevant regulations, policies and procedures of the University). Personal data and photo images of students may also be used by the Hong Kong University Students’ Union for the production of membership cards and conduct of activities.

9. Personal data of the students of the University (including study records) will be used by the University, during studies at and after leaving the University, for conducting statistical analysis, research, survey, review and audit.

10. Upon leaving the University, personal data of the students of the University will also be used for maintaining contact, updating the latest developments of the University, and provision of information (such as activities of the University).

11. Your personal data will be kept confidential and handled by the authorized staff members of the University. The University may transfer your personal data to parties outside the University, for the above functions and purposes, such as processing of student visa, arrangements of activities (including but not limited to exchanges, internships, placements, and field trips), and granting of scholarships and financial aids, and when it is required by law.

12. Under the provisions of the Ordinance, you have the right to request the University to ascertain whether it holds your personal data, to request it to supply to you a copy of the data, and to apply for correction of the data, as necessary. Applications for access to personal data should be made by using the specified form and on payment of a fee. Requests for correction of personal data should be made in writing with supporting documentation. Please address such applications and requests to the Data Protection Officer, Registry, The University of Hong Kong, except for requests for access to examination-related personal data which should be submitted to the office of the home Faculty direct.

13. You may visit the following website for the Privacy Policy Statement of the University:
http://www.hku.hk/about/policies_reports/privacy_policy.html

Declaration

1. I have read and I agree to the Personal Information Collection Statement for Award Applicants.

2. I declare that the information given in support of this application is accurate and complete. I understand that any misrepresentation will disqualify my application.
